GUEST SPEAKERS

GREG PINER

Greg is a top celebrity chef who is also an ambassador for Silver Fern Farms, Ora King Salmon, Escea, and Land Rover NZ. Greg will run an interactive workshop preparing alternative foods. Could these creations become mainstream food in the future or not?

GRAHAM EYRES

Graham specialises in food chemistry and the resultant 'flavour' of foods. This fascinating workshop opens our eyes to the complexity of flavour and the food science involved in creating marketable processed food.

PURE ISOLATION LTD

Pure Isolation Ltd was one of the first fully licensed medicinal cannabis companies in New Zealand. They operate a state-of-the-art facility near Dunedin that employs advanced cultivation technology to grow consistent pharmaceutical-quality medicinal cannabis.

TAMA ALEXANDER

Tama is an ex-student of Otago University, and a successful stand up comedian who will entertain us with his laugh-out-loud comedy sketches!
